Reading 1, Isaiah 35:4-7

<sup>4</sup> and say to the faint-hearted, 'Be strong! Do not be afraid. Here is your God, vengeance is coming, divine retribution; he is coming to save you.' <sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, <sup>6</sup> then the lame will leap like a deer and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy; for water will gush in the desert and streams in the wastelands, <sup>7</sup> the parched ground will become a marsh and the thirsty land springs of water; the lairs where the jackals used to live will become plots of reed and papyrus.

Responsorial Psalm, Psalms 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

<sup>7</sup> gives justice to the oppressed, gives food to the hungry; Yahweh sets prisoners free.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh gives sight to the blind, lifts up those who are bowed down.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh protects the stranger, he sustains the orphan and the widow. Yahweh loves the upright, but he frustrates the wicked.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh reigns for ever, your God, Zion, from age to age.

Reading 2, James 2:1-5

Gospel, Mark 7:31-37

<sup>31</sup> Returning from the territory of Tyre, he went by way of Sidon towards the Lake of Galilee, right through the Decapolis territory. <sup>32</sup> And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup> He took him aside to be by themselves, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. <sup>34</sup> Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' <sup>35</sup> And his ears were opened, and at once the impediment of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. <sup>36</sup> And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup> Their admiration was unbounded, and they said, 'Everything he does is good, he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'
